

March Concertina Weekend

at

St. Audries Bay Holiday Club, Nr. Minehead in Somerset TA4 4DY

(www.staudriesbay.co.uk)

A residential weekend for concertina players of all systems from intermediate to advanced

23rd. – 25th. March 2012

Guest Tutors:

Sandra Kerr

From Northumberland, renowned for her boundless enthusiasm and her deep knowledge of music from the North of England. She is known for her ability to motivate and encourage. Sandra will be leading the English system group.

John Morgan

A great friend of WCCP. John brings the beautiful music of Wales for the Duet players. We never cease to be amazed at the harmony and melody he creates from an Anglo sized instrument.

Ciaran O'Grady

Ciaran is from Dublin. Since his childhood in England he has become an expert in the traditional music of Ireland as well as having great delight in English music, all based on solid technique. Ciaran will be taking the Anglo group.

Paul Barrett

From East Anglia – will be leading the band with pieces ranging from fairly simple to quite challenging. Paul leads our band at the Sidmouth Festival.

Speaker:

Eddie Upton

Eddie has kindly agreed to give us a short talk during our respite break – he will be discussing his approach to singing with the concertina and how it has shaped his style.

Concertina Self Reliance

Colin and Rosalie Dipper

Will be teaching self reliance for the concertina owner.
